This sailing allowed me only 16 cabins in certain categories. And, we've already started booking some outside the allotted block. The remainder of cabins were all in the balcony category of 2A and 1A (as mentioned on the first side of this flyer). I can, however, book anything Celebrity still has available, at their prevailing rates and with their particular perks...Plus, I can add group perks, which consist of additional benefits to the already promotional types offered by Celebrity! So, same price, more perks, easy payments and I'll do all the work...Call me today to help plan this amazing cruise!

Thank you!

Trent
