This sailing allowed me only 16 cabins in certain categories. I blocked what I think is the most important, including one inside (but upgrade) cabin, a couple of ocean views and the rest in the balcony type category. However, anything Celebrity still has available, has it available to me via groups and with that come the group perks, which consist of additional benefits to the already promotional types offered by Celebrity! So, same price, more perks, easy payments and I'll do all the work...Call me today to help & thank you, Trent
